Cricket in India (IPL) and its impactDr. Charanjeetsingh D. MahajanDept. of Physical Education,Narayanrao Chavan Law College,Nanded Dist. Nanded*

A gentleman's game cricket was played by the Prince Edward, the son of Edward I, in Weymouth, Kent, in 1301 but there has been a lot of speculation about the game. There is no evidence that the game was a form of cricket. "The name of cricket has a known history spanning from the 16th century to the present day, with international matches played since 1844, although the official history of International test cricket began in 1877"¹. England is known for the origin of the game. Now a day the cricketers are the real God of playfield. The cricket playground like a place of worship where a huge crowd gathers to see their cricket Gods. In this paper section 2 is about IPL. The section 3 deal with the knowledge of commercialized system of IPL. In section 4 we will discuss the positive and the negative points of IPL. In the end we concluded the impact of commercialization on cricket.

1. Indian Premier League (IPL):-

The Indian cricket league is a professional 20 over cricket tournament. It was started on 18 April 2008. The Board control for cricket in India (BCCI) is the supreme for all the matters regarding this tournament.

2. What is commercialization:-

"The commercialization of sports is that aspect of the sports enterprise that involves the sale, display, or use of sport or some aspect of sport so as to produce income"².

When India won the first world cup of cricket in 1983 then the prize money was 14.3 lacks but in 2011 the prize money was 13.8 cores because the sponsored form all around the world
