RAGGING AND LAW

Dr. Meer Basharat Ali Meer Quader Ali
Associate Professor,
Narayanrao Chavan Law College, Nanded,
Tq. & Dist. Nanded

Introduction:

Ragging in India is a form of interaction of the seniors in college or school with the juniors or the newcomers or the first years. It is similar to but not same as hazing in the United States, it is not an initiation. It involves insults (simple or suggestive sexual, sarcastic and even physical), running errands for seniors, and many other complex activities. Highly reputed Indian colleges have a rich history of ragging especially Medical colleges. It has become increasingly unpopular due to several complaints of serious injury to the victims and strict laws regarding ragging. Ragging is now defined as an act that violates or is perceived to violate an individual student's dignity. It is more of a psychopathic behavior and reflection of deviant personalities.

Meaning of Ragging :

In common parlance, ragging means playing practical jokes on somebody or teaching someone a lesson. According to the Chambers English Dictionary,

Ragging is an outburst of organized horseplay, usually in defiance of authority, riotous festivity, especially of under-graduates in British Universities, associated with the raising of money for charity.

According to the Reader's Digest Great Encyclopedia Dictionary,

"Ragging means a noisy disorderly conduct, annual parade of students in fancy dress to collect money for charity, playing rough jokes,
