

THE CONTEXT:

The world at large is facing distress due to Covid -19. Conducting Examination is necessarily the task assigned to the university administration in affiliation system. In this tougher time, it has come as unforeseen challenge before the university administration, for which the traditional universities were not ready. The university, in order to conduct the examination, for law Course has casted the duty to arrange for the examination to this college as a Lead College. Accordingly, the college has initiated the process for conducting University examination for all the affiliated law Colleges under the university. The examinations, except Final year Examinations for this academic year has been conducted by this college.

THE OBJECTIVES OF THE PRACTISE: -

The institute having located at the place of University, has always been reckoned by the university for adopting innovative approaches to the real life solution, accordingly university in consultation with other law colleges has asked Narayanrao Chavan law College, Nanded to lead the examination wing of University for law Courses as a Cluster head.

THE PRACTISE: -

With this objective the institute has called for the meeting of all affiliated law colleges under the Swami Ramanand Teerth Marathwada University, Nanded. The principals or their Representatives, Examination officers of the concerned affiliated colleges has participated in the meeting. The discussion on the conduct of examination, paper setting, paper distribution, result declaration has been finalized in the meeting. It is decided into the meeting that, Dr. A. B. Karwa of this college shall act as Cluster Coordinator for all the purpose of conducting examination.

OBSTACLES FACED/ PROBLEMS ENCOUNTERED: -

Since the examination has to be conducted by the respective colleges at their level under the supervision of the college by adopting the mode suitable to each college, wherein paper set is supposed to be supplied by the lead college, I.e, this college, and thus it has become an important hurdle to get it typed and upload for the students. Conducting examinations in online mode is not the usual practise of the traditional colleges, the mode of examination. i.e. MCQ, too has been the major obstacle as such was not been practised by the university.

IMPACT OF PRACTISE/ EVIDENCE OF SUCCESS: -

The examination been successfully conducted by each affiliating college. This was the first ever experience of each college, to conduct the examination at their level, that too by MCQ method. The success of this practise is that, the university has declared the result in unprecedented time, i.e. within 10 days of examination. Normally University takes at least 45 days to declare the result. The present practise, has enabled the university and colleges to cover 35 days delay to the academic calendar.

RESOURCES REQUIRED: -

Manpower for the examination department, stationary, machinery like Computer, Internet, Printer and online examination application software are the requirements to successfully conduct the present practise.
